Three New Members Join HDP User Group International

Scottsdale, Ariz., July 28, 2008—The High Density Packaging User Group International, Inc. (HDP), a global non-profit cooperative research and development organization for the Electronics industry, announces three new companies (Lenovo, Isola Group, and The Meadville Group) have joined the organization as corporate members.

The HDP organization and its member companies are excited about the addition of these three diverse companies and look forward to sharing knowledge in current and future projects that will benefit all. “These companies bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to HDP, and their support will be beneficial to all of our activities,” said Marshall Andrews, executive director of HDP. The new members will participate in several of HDP’s technical projects.

About our three new members:

Lenovo (HKSE: 992) (ADR: LNVGY) is dedicated to building the world’s best engineered personal computers. Lenovo’s business model is built on innovation, operational efficiency and customer satisfaction as well as a focus on investment in emerging markets. Formed by Lenovo Group’s acquisition of the former IBM Personal Computing Division, the company develops, manufactures and markets reliable, high-quality, secure and easy-to-use technology products and services worldwide. Lenovo has major research centers in Yamato, Japan; Beijing, Shanghai and Shenzhen, China; and Raleigh, North Carolina. For more information see www.lenovo.com.

Isola Group, SARL, with headquarters in Chandler, Arizona, is a technology-driven, global designer, developer and manufacturer of high performance base materials used in the manufacture of advanced multilayer printed circuit boards worldwide. Isola's investment in research and development, technology and state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities and practices results in superior value to our customers, with innovative solutions to minimize costs and cut manufacturing time. Our commitment is reflected in our global network of sales and distribution offices allowing us to meet evolving customer needs and provide a full spectrum of services.

Founded in 1985 and headquartered in Hong Kong, Meadville is one of the leading Printed Circuit Board (PCB) manufacturers in the PRC by turnover. Focusing on high-end PCB products, also supplies prepreg and laminates suitable for advanced PCB production. Our "One-stop shop" service offers PCB layout design, QTA to mass production. We are able to produce IC substrate for the semiconductor market and have embarked on technology alliances with strategic partners to gain faster access to advanced technologies. Main customers are multinational and PRC OEMs, EMS providers and PCB traders. Many of our customers are based in the PRC, Japan, Korea, North America and Europe.
